Counsel for the Petitioner:A.DEEPTHI

Counsel for the Respondent No.: MR.M.VIJAY KUMAR

The Court made the following :

ORDER: (per GB,J.)

1 This batch of Writ Petitions can be disposed of by a common order as the question of Law involved in all the matters is one and the same.

2 The matters relate to the recruitment to Group-IV posts. Vide notification No.1of 1989 dated 7.1.11989, the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission issued notification calling for applications for appointment by direct recruitment (General and Limited) to the following posts:-

i. Junior Stenos in Secretariat Service.

ii. Junior Stenos and Typists in Ministerial Service in Heads of Departments.

iii. Junior Stenos, Typists and Junior Assistants in A.P. Judicial Ministerial Service and Junior Stenos in Legislature Service.

3 In response to the said notification, about 2,20,000 candidates appeared for the written test conducted on 31.5.1989. The results were published in a phased manner. In the first instance the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission announced the result of 2,281 candidates on 22.4.1991 and call letters were issued, out of which only 300 candidates were selected. Thereafter, the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission announced further result of 10,264 candidates and issued call letters, out of which 400 candidates were appointed in March, 1992. Similarly, in the third phase, the result of 1,500 candidates was announced and some of them were appointed. Likewise, candidates who were provisionally selected numbering about 14,000 were asked to fill up the main applications for recruitment to various posts in Group-IV 'C-category' (General/Limited) recruitment in Andhra Pradesh Ministerial Services. Since further selection was not made and further appointment orders were not issued, some of the persons approached the Tribunal and filed O.A.No. 2683 of 1993 and batch. The learned Tribunal after considering the matter at length passed the interim order dated 1.12.1993 with the following directions:-

a. "the State Government will direct all its departments and subordinate offices, which are required to notify the vacancies for this category of posts mentioned in Ex.B.1 meant for direct recruitment to the Commission, which had arisen prior to 1.7.1993 with relevant particulars reservations etc.

b. on receipt of requisition of vacancies, pursuant to direction and any vacancies which may be available consequent upon other directions, the Commission will prepare the list of such vacancies.

c. It will prepare separate merit list out of the same master list of 14,000 candidates after amendments as per our directions contained herein for each of the above said type of categories. If a candidate eligible to be included in more than one list, his name will be included in all such merit lists in accordance with rank.

d. To avoid multiplicity of litigation, we consider it appropriate to adjourn these cases for redressal of any grievances, which may be in the nature of continuation of the present grievances.

Post these cases in the first week of April, 1994"

4 In pursuance of the said directions, the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission, sent communication to all the concerned authorities to furnish the vacancy position, both, in the Head Offices and the subordinate offices. Accordingly, the information was received. Similarly, the Government also vide Memo dated 1.1.1994 requested all the concerned including the District Collectors to furnish the vacancy position both in the Subordinate Offices and the Heads of Departments and also in the District judiciary. Subsequently, when the matters were listed in the Tribunal, it was represented by the learned counsel for the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission that the interim order dated 1.12.1993 was being implemented by the A.P. Public Service Commission and that the said interim orders may be treated as final orders. In the said circumstances, the Tribunal disposed of the O.As. by making the said orders absolute on 9.8.1995.

5 It is the case of the petitioners that by virtue of the orders of the Tribunal, the Government has not only to implement the orders, but, is also bound by its actions subsequent to the orders of the Tribunal and they cannot turn around and contend that they are not bound by the orders of the Tribunal. Similarly situated candidates approached the High Court by filing Writ Petition No.7978 of 1993 and batch seeking to implement the selection list in respect of the vacancies in connection with Notification No.1 of 1989 and appoint the petitioners in accordance with their merit. Interim orders were passed on 2.8.1993 in the said batch of Writ Petitions. Similar orders were also issued in respect of some other similarly situated candidates. In the said batch of writ petitions, the Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission, filed counter, inter alia, contending that 2,26,225 candidates have appeared for the recruitment on 31.5.1989, and also stated that the Commission called for the original certificates from the sufficient number of candidates and issued memos to candidates calling for certificates duly enclosing main applications. It is further contended that the Commission has allotted 886 candidates to different services out of the list of selected candidates, whose certificates were verified. Aggrieved by the interim order passed in W.P.No. 7978 of 1993, Writ Appeal No.965 of 1993 was filed and the same was disposed of directing the petitioners to approach the Tribunal. Some of the applicants also filed similar writ petitions in W.P.No. 19290 of 1993 seeking to implement the orders of the Tribunal. Similar writ petitions were also filed by some of the applicants, but we are not concerned with the same in the present writ petition.

6 Ultimately, a batch of writ petitions in W.P.No.10898 of 1997 and batch were filed seeking a direction to the official respondents to implement the directions granted by the A.P. Administrative Tribunal on 1.12.1993 and 9.8.1995 in O.A.No.2683 of 1993, and directions issued by a Division Bench of this Court dated 20.7.1995 in W.P.No.8151 of 1993, and the Division Bench disposed of the batch of writ petitions setting aside the orders of the Tribunal dated 1.12.1993 and 9.8.1995 in O.A.No.2683 of 1993 and batch and directed the Tribunal to issue notices to the parties and to adjudicate on the following issues.

1. As to whether the Notification relating to the recruitment of Group IV services relates only to the vacancies arising in the Heads of Departments only or all the vacancies in the Heads of Departments as also the Districts;

2. As to whether all such posts of Group IV services in Districts which arose upto 30-6-1993 were within the purview of A.P. Public Service Commission;

3. Whether the action of Andhra Pradesh Public Service Commission in deleting the posts relating to the Districts borne on Group-IV services is an affront to the Order dated 1.12.1993 passed by the Tribunal; and

4. Whether the order dated 1.12.1993 rendered by the Tribunal in O.A.No.2683 of 1993 and batch was fully implemented by A.P. Public Service Commission.

After the matter was reconsidered by the Tribunal orders were passed by the Tribunal on 24.11.2003 dismissing the O.As. Against the said order the present batch of writ petitions have been filed.

7 Sri S. Ramachandra Rao, the learned Senior Counsel appearing for the petitioners submits that the Tribunal has not properly appreciated the matter and thus rendered erroneous decision. He submits that the petitioners were selected by the APPSC and they are entitled to be appointed as long back as 1989 itself. But for the various administrative delays they were not appointed. He further submits that the Tribunal wholly erred in holding that the vacancies in the notification issued did not cover the vacancies in the Subordinate Offices and that the vacancies only relate to the Heads of the Departments and Subordinate Offices and A.P. Judicial Ministerial Services. He also submits that even assuming that the recruitments were held only to the Heads of the Departments and Secretariat Establishment, still 312 vacancies have not been filled up by virtue of the interim direction granted by this Court apart from other existing vacancies. Therefore, in those vacancies at least the petitioners could be considered for appointment.

8 On the other hand, the learned counsel for APPSC and the learned Government Pleader submits that the order passed by the Tribunal is legal and valid. Whether the recruitment covered the posts in Subordinate Offices or not, the Tribunal has considered the issue in extenso and came to the conclusion that the recruitment did not cover the posts in Subordinate Offices other than the Heads of the Departments and the posts in Secretariat and Judicial Department. Hence, the order of the Tribunal is quite legal and valid.

9 We have heard the learned counsel for the petitioners and the learned Government Pleader at length.

10 The Tribunal after considering the respective contentions, concentrated only on two important questions.

1. Whether the recruitment of Group-IV service relates only to the vacancies arising in the Heads of the Department and Secretariat and the posts in the A.P. Judicial and Ministerial Services or it covers all the vacancies including all the Subordinate Offices in the Districts.
2. Whether all such decisions of Group-IV service in the District, which arose after 30-6-1993 were within the purview of the APPSC.

11 With regard to the first issue, the learned Tribunal after considering the entire history and taking into consideration the notification has recorded a finding that the notification was only in respect of the posts in the Heads of the Departments, Secretariat Departments and A.P. Judicial and Ministerial Services. While arriving at such a conclusion, the learned Tribunal has taken into consideration the notification issued by the Government in G.O.Ms.No.259 G.A. (Services-A) Department dated 4.6.1985 issued in exercise of the powers conferred by proviso to Clause (3) of Article 320 of the Constitution of India taking out the posts in Group-IV services from the purview of the APPSC other than the posts in Heads of the Departments, Secretariat Departments and the Andhra Pradesh Judicial Ministerial Services.

12 The learned Senior Counsel Sri S. Ramachandra Rao submits that the reference to G.O.Ms.No.259, dated 4.6.1985 was never made by the APPSC or the Government in O.A.No.2683 of 1993 before its remand. It is only when the batch of writ petitions for implementation of the orders of the Tribunal in the said O.A., the APPSC has taken the stand for the first time that the posts in Group IV in Subordinate Offices are excluded from the purview of the APPSC, and the Tribunal ought not to have taken cognizance of such a submission. We are not inclined to accept the said contention. In fact, it is stated at the Bar that the validity of the G.O. has been upheld by this court in W.P.Nos.6464 of 1985 and 6583 of 1985. Be that as it may, mere omission to state the facts by itself would not be construed as an admission that the recruitment also covered the posts in Subordinate Offices, more especially, in the wake of notification. In fact, the aforesaid G.O. has not been brought to the notice of the Tribunal on earlier occasion and there was no discussion on the said point. It is only pressed into service before the Division Bench of this court, and the Division Bench thought it fit to send it back to Tribunal for fresh consideration. It is also contended that the issuance of notification and contents thereof, followed by the conduct of APPSC and also the Government, would clearly and clinchingly indicate that the Government and the APPSC in fact intended to conduct recruitment for the posts in Subordinate Offices also. It is further argued that if there are only handful of posts numbering over 800, there was no necessity to send intimation to about 14,000 persons. Even assuming that the submission is true, yet principle of estoppel does not operate against the respondents. We also find that the APPSC and the Government are not able to wriggle out of the situation. But this predicament could have been avoided had the APPSC notified the vacancies category-wise and with reference to each establishment. This was not done for obvious reasons that they had not noticed G.O.Ms.No.259, dated 4.6.1985. However, in view of the aforesaid facts and circumstances, we do not find any illegality in the finding recorded by the Tribunal.

13 The next issue in the wake of aforesaid conclusion pales into insignificance. However, the Tribunal found that the posts in Group-IV services in the District that arose up to 30-6-1993 were not within the purview of the APPSC in view of the aforesaid G.O.Ms.No.259, dated 4-6-1985. Thus we find that no interference is warranted under second issue also.

14 However, as a last straw in the camel's mouth which could save the camel itself as in this case, the learned Senior Counsel submits that when there are vacancies in the Heads of Departments, Secretariat establishment etc., even according to the respondents, which were not filled on account of the stay granted by this court, at least those cases may be considered since they fall in the Establishment other than the Subordinate Offices. This situation has not been disputed by the learned counsel for the APPSC and the learned Government Pleader. It is also not in dispute that all the petitioners were successful in the written test and also filed the main application forms. Under those circumstances, there cannot be any impediment for consideration of the case of the petitioners for filling up the posts, which were covered by the interim orders passed by this court on 13-5-1997 in W.P.M.P.Nos.13183 of 1997 and 13184 of 1997 in W.P.No.10898 of 1997 in which following order has been passed.

> " Three hundred and twelve (312) posts shall be reserved until further orders."

15 Since 312 posts were directed to be kept unfilled and if there are other posts apart from the above vacancies, it is incumbent on the APPSC to fill up the said posts from among the petitioners in all the writ petitions who have been putting up long drawn litigation patiently though the continued unemployment leads to frustration. Under those circumstances, the respondents – APPSC and the Government are directed to consider the cases of the writ petitioners and appoint them in the vacancies referred to above in accordance with the Rules. This exercise shall be done within a period of two months from the date of receipt of a copy of this order.

16 Accordingly, the Writ Petitions are disposed of. No costs.
